Miss Dugan's FHA Girls Entertain The Whitesburg Rotarians

Miss Ann Dugan's Home Ec. students gave Rotarians a very fine program on Tuesday at Mother Craft's.

In addition to very fine talents, Miss Dugan had a number of beautiful girls appear, displaying nice dresses that had made with their own hands and each one telling of the cost of the material from which the dresses were made.

Rotarians were surprised at the low cost. The price for a seemingly $15, $20, or $25 dress, it was pointed out could be made for less than $5.00.

Learning by doing is certainly among the most valuable of lessons, and Miss Dugan we are sure, deserves much praise for her efforts. Dr. B. C. Bach was sponsor of the program.

County Buildings To Be Painted

The Letcher Fiscal Court upon the recommendation of Judge Robert B. Collins at their last meeting let a contract for the lowest bid and best bidder for the painting of the Whitesburg, Court House, County Jail and the building directly back of the jail, all to be painted a pure white. The contract went to Mac Adams Paint Co., of Jenkins and as you will notice when coming to town that the job is well underway. This will mean much to Main Street and the general appearance of our town. The Adams crew is working daily at the job and Mr. Adams stated it would take about 30 days to complete the work.

New Garage To Be Built In Neon By Clarence Harlow

We learn from Clarence Harlow, Ford Dealer at Neon, that excavation work has been going on for several days in preparation for a new building, which he states will be outstanding and probably the best in Letcher County. He estimates the cost at approximately $100,000, a six car show-room garage.

Mr. Harlow, for the past two years, has received outstanding awards for sales services from the Ford Motor Manufacturers.

Judge Collins Says Jail Is Empty For First Time In Years

This week for the first time in many administrations, the Letcher County Jail was void of occupants. Judge Robert B. Collins was quite excited when he called us in to give us this story, and stated that he hoped that the Letcher County people would continue to keep up their good behaviour, and that the doors of the jail could remain open for an indefinite period.

This again confirms our belief along with our good county officials that we have one of the best counties in the state.

215 Dogs Vaccinated Against Rabies In Letcher County

Dr. Dow Collins has reported that a total of 215 dogs have been vaccinated in Letcher County to date this year. The Jaycees have assisted Dr. Collins in vaccinating the dogs against rabies.

The following places and number of dogs vaccinated have been visited:

Blackey, 47; Kingdom Come, 43; Jenkins, 56; Neon, 46; Whitesburg, 23.

Whitesburg had the lowest number of dogs vaccinated of any community in the county.

The dogs that have been vaccinated are in all probability safe from rabies except in the case where they might have contacted the disease before having shots.

Ford Celebrates 50th Anniversary

Fifty years ago James Couzens, a young Detroit businessman, had a hard time persuading his sister, Rosetta, to invest $200 in a new kind of concern called an automobile company that was being organized by a man named Henry Ford.

Rosetta was skeptical. She didn't think Ford's gasoline carriage would amount to much. Finally, with great reluctance, she agreed to let her brother risk $100 of her money, and not a penny more, in the wild scheme.

In the years that followed, Rosetta Couzens Hauss must have scolded herself for being so cautious.

From its start in 1903, Ford Motor Company became the most astonishingly successful industrial enterprise the world has seen. In 1919, after collecting $95,000 in dividends, Mrs. Hauss sold her $100 interest in the company to the Ford family for $260,000.

The tale of Mrs. Hauss' $100 and how it grew is one of the many colorful Ford stories that will be recalled by automobile men during the observance this year of Ford

Motor Company's 50th anniversary. Prominent Americans from all walks of life will join with Henry Ford II, president of the company, and his employees in marking the anniversary at the Rouge headquarters in Dearborn, Michigan, and at manufacturing and assembly plants and sales offices all over the world.

Oldtimers also will remember the day in 1914 when Henry Ford promised to return between $40 and $60 to each customer who bought one of his cars during the next 12 months if sales in that period topped 300,000.

A total of 308,213 Fords were sold. Fifteen and a half million dollars in $50 checks promptly went into the mail.

It was also in 1914 that Henry Ford rocked the financial world with his Five Day. The prevailing wage scale for factory workers at the time was $2.34 for a nine-hour day. When Ford announced that he would pay a minimum of $5 for an eight-hour day, bankers and businessmen thought he had lost his mind.

Ford contended, however, that higher wages would mean better business for the employer. Time proved that he was right.

These are just a few of the things that makes the Ford Motor Company a great industry today, and one of the greatest industries that makes America great.

Ford Motor Company is celebrating its 50th Anniversary as one of the leading automobile makers in America.

TODAY'S MEDITATION FROM "THE UPPER ROOM"

"Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel. (Psalm 73:24.) Read it Peter 3:8-13.

I was born in a house now known as 58 Middle Street, built in 1750 at Gloucester, Massachusetts. Daniel Rogers, my great-grandfather, had twenty-one children in this house. It was always said that as the doctor brought a new one in the front door Daniel Rogers sent out the back door to make his living on the seas!

My father was a great believer in prayer for guidance. He learned that by listening to God he could get on the right "team" and he headed in the right direction. This was as real to him as the magnetic force was to the ship captains of Gloucester in by-gone sailing vessel days.

As a memorial to my father, I have installed in the Gloucester home a ship's compass in the center of the room where he taught me to pray. As ships used to come to port, this compass in my home serves as a reminder to me to keep God's invisible beam and be headed in the right direction.

PRAYER

O God, we know that Thou dost exist, that from everlasting to everlasting Thou art God. Thou art all-knowing, all-powerful, all-loving. We pray that Thou will guide us with Thy counsel. Give us the quietness and self-control to take time to listen to Thee. In our Redeemer's name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

"I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go."

Statistician (Massachusetts)

Step-Mom Named "Mother of Year"

New York, April 28 — The 1953 American Mother of the Year turned out today to be a step-mother.

She is Mrs. Ethlyn Wise-garver Bott, 58, of Belleville, Ill., who successfully raised four motherless children after she married their widower father 20 years ago.

It was the first time in its 28 years that the American Mothers Committee selected a step-mother for its annual honor. However, in the words of Mrs. Bott's youngest child, Pauline, 24,

"She is in reality a step-mother. I guess but she never has been or ever will be anything but a real mother to us."

At her Belleville home, Mrs. Bott greeted the announcement "happily and humbly," very humble," she said. "The ideals which I have followed will continue to be followed."

"Our family," she explained, "really is no different from the family next door."

Mrs. Bott will receive her award at a Waldorf-Astoria luncheon here May 8.

The Mothers Committee works for dedication of American homes to the Golden Rule and for the installation of a spiritual quality in the Nation's annual Mother's Day.

Its parent organization is the Golden Rule Foundation, which raises funds for benevolent projects and conducts educational research.

Each state selects its Mother of the Year. So do the District of Columbia, Alaska, Puerto Rico and Hawaii. Nominees are open to anyone and the selection is handled by a state committee from women's organizations in the states.

A national jury of prominent women then selects the American Mother from among the state choices.

Scouts Training Course In Progress

Training Courses for Scoutmasters and Patrol Leaders are being conducted each Tuesday evening at Seco for Scouts of Letcher District, Lone Pine Council, Boy Scouts of America. These courses are designed to give Scouts and Troop Junior Leaders training for carrying on an effective Scout program with their local Scout units.

Subjects covered are Troop and Patrol Program Planning, Troop and Patrol Hiking, Troop and Patrol Camping and Unit Advancement.

In presenting these subjects, the Scouts and Scouts plan actual Scout activities as they would in their own units.

Ardell Champion, Leadership Training Chairman of Letcher County, is acting as Senior Patrol Leader for the course and Lloyd Holbrook, Scoutmaster of the Whitesburg

Troop and Arville Burke, Scoutmaster of the Burdine Scout Troop, are acting as Patrol Leaders.

The Training course is climaxed by an overnight camp where the Scouts put into practice the Scout skills discussed during the course.

VA LOANS

Veterans who plan to seek GI loans from private lenders for homes, farms or businesses should apply to Veterans Administration regional offices in advance for certificates of eligibility. VA announced to-day.

At her Belleville home, Mrs.

Bott greeted the announcement "happily and humbly," very humble," she said. "The ideals which I have followed will continue to be followed."

"Our family," she explained, "really is no different from the family next door."

Certificates of eligibility are proof for lenders that VA will guarantee or insure a loan if the veteran meets other usual loan requirements.

In the past, veterans have been advised to submit their discharge or separation papers to the lending institutions, making the loan. They in turn, would submit them to VA on behalf of the veterans.

However, since the passage of the Korean GI Bill which extends the loan guaranty benefits of the World War II GI Bill to veterans with service since June 27, 1950, VA must have information not previously needed to establish eligibility.

The American Legion Poppy

On May 23, all over Kentucky, women and men carrying strings of artificial poppies will appear on the streets of many towns and cities. The flowers are not large, but they are the color of blood, and they appear in memory of those who have died on the battlefields in defense of America.

The poppies are cut, shaped and prepared by the hands of veterans who are in the hospitals. These flowers were made during long hours of confinement to wheel chairs and traction beds, through afternoons when pain and suffering relaxed their hold for a little, sometimes in spite of pain. And each red petal attached so firmly to its green stem is a grim reminder of blood shed for America and Americans.

When someone approaches you on Poppy Day and pins this little flower on your lapel or dress with the words—"I put this poppy on you in loving memory of the war dead" reach into your pocket or purse and contribute something for the poppy.

"In Flanders fields the poppies blow"

Real poppies, that from earth do grow—

The earth that forms a loving bed.

Soft cushion for the warriors dead.

These poppies blow a brighter red

On blood of heroes they are fed—

And bring a touch of beauty there

To lessen sadness and dark care.

On Kentucky's streets the poppies blow

Paper poppies that never earth did know

Creations of the torn and weak

Who faith with comrades keep—

Who remember each day of the week

In walking hours or troubled sleep,

Wear proudly the emblem of sacrifice

It was purchased at a tremendous price.

Do you know this about telephone taxes?

You may not realize how large a part of the money paid by telephone users goes to taxes.

Including the federal excise tax, a total of 29¢ out of every dollar received from Southern Bell customers last year was paid out in taxes to federal, state and local governments. To put it another way, the average amount of taxes was $2.91 a month per telephone.

Telephone taxes are necessary to the support of government, but they do mount up. Higher taxes of course have effect on the price you pay for telephone service.

The next time you pay your telephone bill, remember that a good part of it is taxes for government and national defense.

SOIL CONSERVATION

(by John Jordan)

A community project on drainage has been surveyed near Ison for Orville Adams, B. H. Blair, and Gay Frazer. A one-half acre pond has been staked for Willie Hampton at Eremiah. The pond will be fourteen feet deep in the deepest place. A pipe will be placed under the pond and a water trough placed below the dam. Mr. Hampton plans to fence out the cattle and do away with the danger of drowning. Other good reasons for fencing out the cattle are: (1) they won't muddy the water, (2) diseases won't be spread, (3) the banks of the pond won't become bare and split the pond, etc. A one acre plot of sericea lespedeza will be sown on the Hampton farm.

The ditches that were dug for Bruce Baker at Colson haven't been dug yet, but he ran a plow furrow and shoveled one ditch from a road culvert. He says, "It's a sight to see how that one small ditch has dried up that bottom land."

Another chemical control demonstration was held on Ben Craft's farm on Millstone. Large beechn and other small cull trees were killed with ditches.

UK Football Coach

he had been invited to lend his talents to the Kentucky football team as one of the rival coaches in the annual Blue-White intra-squad game scheduled for May 15 on Stoll Field. He was very apologetic in explaining that a tight schedule of previous commitments would prevent his appearance at the tilt for the benefit of the "K" club but in view of income from the public game between evenly matched squads of Wildcat football players will be used to build a club house for the organization of UK varsity letter winners.

On the surface of the matter, it would seem to be a very far cry from sports in general and football in particular to the subject of entertainment at the big Blue Grass Festival held in University of Kentucky's Memorial Coliseum recently.

The Derby eve extravaganza featured movie star Bob Hope, Judy Garland and Martin Melville along with the big bands of Vaughn Monroe and Buddy Mowrey in some mighty enjoyable chatter and music that I would highly recommend as being the next best thing to a good football game.

Funnyman Hope, whose reactions and memory would make him a fine athlete, joked about the Coliseum as "the loveliest super-market I ever played in" and in the next breath praised it as a fine building. He didn't pull off any wise cracks about football, despite the fact that he is closely associated with the game as a stockholder in the professional Los Angeles Rams, but he did let out a little secret in a moment of seriousness.

The comedian revealed that

Wilbur R. (Shorty) Jameson, former backfield star for the University of Kentucky Wildcats, has been named head football coach at Morehead State College. This was announced Friday by Morehead President Charles R. Spain, following a meeting of the athletic committee at the college.

Now a first lieutenant in the Air Force stationed at Bolling Field, Washington, D. C. Jameson expects to be released from active duty July 1 and to assume his duties at the college July 15. He will visit the campus for his first meeting with the football squad on

KENTUCKY NEWS IN BRIEF

County Boards of Puration and Registration must publish names of persons whose purgation notice cards are returned unclaimed to the Board, it was held by Assistant Attorney General Walter C. Herdman.

"Use of the word 'shall' in the Act, makes it mandatory that the list be published," observed Herdman. "We realize that this will be a considerable expense in some counties, but we see no alternative."

It is not mandatory on City Councils and other governing bodies that local newspapers and newsmen be notified of meetings of those groups, Asst. Atty. Gen. M. B. Hollifield ruled.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

It was indeed a pleasure to see you all at Mr. Adams' funeral. I did not get to converse with you as much as I desired but under circumstances there were so many whom I wanted to greet, I did not get back around.

The words of those who spoke in tribute to Mr. Adams were well chosen. He did a good work and was a good man. I wish we had more such.

I think they're planning a Home Coming again this year and a Pageant of the Founding of the school and you want to be here by all means. Come see us any time. I mean us! May the Lord bless you and yours and that showers of blessing and mercy drops may continue to fall all around you.

FUTURE LOOKS BRIGHTER FOR EMERGENCY TEACHERS STATES SUPT. OF SCHOOLS DAVE L. CRAFT

A report on the school teacher shortage in Kentucky shows that 103 teachers in Letcher County have emergency teaching certificates.

The study, issued by the State Department of Education's Division of Teacher Education and Certification, shows that 2,903 public school teachers in Kentucky have less than standard certificates. The figure is an improvement over a year ago, when there were 2,971 emergency teachers.

There has been a steady decline in emergency certificates since the 1947-1948 school year, when there were 5,300 teachers employed on an emergency basis.

Of the emergency teachers in Letcher County this year, 99 are in the county system. There are four in the Jenkins system.

AN ADDRESS BY THE LATE JUDGE
R. MONROE FIELDS

AN EXTEMPERANEOUS SPEECH MADE BY HON R. MONROE FIELDS AT A FAREWELL DINNER GIVEN HIM BY THE LETCHER COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION, JULY 1948, PRETOR TO HIS DEATH IN AUGUST 1948, AT A TIME HE PLANNED TO LEAVE LETCHER AND RESIDE IN PIKE COUNTY TO BE JUDGE IN DISTRICT NO. 35.

Friends, members of the Bar Association, and guests: It would take me a long time to say what I think and would like to say and there is a great deal in my heart I think about the Bar of Letcher County and its people. I will say one thing that is out of my heart; it is one of the best bars in the State of Kentucky. It has often been mentioned to me the way the attorneys get along at our bar. There is no factions and fighting up in my judgment and try cases not according to what may be on one side but he has to do his utmost to try them right and that causes an honest judge to have to decide against his very best friend and sometimes against a man who has voted with you in an election. I decided a case over here in Mr. Runyon's county and there was a man who had been my friend for several years. I felt I had to decide against him because he was wrong. The Court of Appeals upheld me and said he was wrong, but he never forgave me. I tried a case down here in my town, and I never have been bad to shun a case when I had no feeling in it, I decided against two of my neighbors and both of them got mad at me and one of them litigants doesn't speak to me but the other has got to be friendly. But those things don't change me. I have tried to be a friendly judge. As Judge Combs said, sometimes when judges don't feel well, and they have periods of illness when a judge gets to feeling bad he is apt to get ill and nothing has hurt me worse than to find myself getting ill and snappy.

When I have done that I have always in my heart repented, and a few times when my conduct was unbearable I have felt it necessary to apologize and I have done that and felt good in doing it. They tell a story of one of General Washington, who in a fit of rage, knocked down one of his generals with his fist and the next day, in the presence of the army, he apologized and did it publicly. I have never liked insulting a man in public and apologizing in private. I lost my temper with Judge Childers who was our Commonwealth Attorney, and a good one. He belonged to one party and me the other—this Court has never played politics. I snapped him and the next day when I had cooled off I had repented all night—I apologized publicly and told him I was sorry. The Judge said, "You don't need to apologize to me. I was Judge for six years and never was in a good humor the whole time."

A Judge has lots of trials and hardships and either he goes out of his district or there comes a last time—and there will come a time when a lawyer will go into court for the last time, and the officers will meet him for the last time, and it is apparent to me now that that time has almost arrived for me with the Letcher County Bar, at least my last time with you as your Judge. I will soon be done here.

It is true I am going to be out of court a few days the last of this term, but I am happy to know the Court will be in good hands. I have been told my old friend, Astor Hogg, will be the special Judge and I am sure he will go on with the work as well as I can. He was reared at the mouth of Kings Creek and I was born and reared upon the creek. In our early life we spent a great deal of time together and in later life he lived next door to me and I spent a great deal of time with him. But there came a last time so that and we had to break up that situation. I have always had a feeling for Astor, I hope you will pardon me for calling him by his first name. To me he is Astor and those days were mighty fine days.

I have spent some of the best days of my life in my old home, but during the misfortunes of life I got caught in the squeeze that left me nothing with much of this world's goods. But the people who owned the property have been kind to me and I have lived there. I never had to get out. But the time has come when I must go out of office or follow up my district. The reason I want out of court here these last two weeks, I am tired, but the main thing that compels me to do this is that my children are coming.

I hope you all will excuse me (for his tears). My children have visited me every year in my old home and like my associations with the bar and the courts of this county, these two weeks will be our last time in the old home. We are giving it up. I have spent the best years of my life trying to make you a good officer. You had the best I had in me, whether it be good or bad, it was the best I knew. While I feel that I haven't a great many more years anywhere I am not worried about that. I have lived a long life. My wife said the other day, "We are getting old." We are not old but we are getting old. My life is pretty well lived. I realize that; realize the sadness when I go away from you good people of Letcher County to make my home elsewhere. I am sorry I couldn't talk to you without any show of emotion, but my heart was heavy. There is no people I love any more than the people of Letcher County and when I go away, I go away without an ill feeling toward a soul on top of the earth.

I have found that if someone doesn't like you as he should, life is too short to hold malice. I have hoped and still have hope—I have no thought of running for office again.

I have hoped to spend the last years of my life in the practice of law. I enjoy the practice of it and I could make a great deal more money than I have in holding office but I would like to have a few years of my life in the practice of law. When my term of office is out, if my health holds up, I would like, if I could have my way about it, to die in harness.

I have a great source of pride to me was the fact that both political parties named me as a candidate. The Lord knows I have tried to try cases on their merits and not take into consideration friendship or anything else and both parties realized that. And a great source of pride to me was to look back on them. I married the profession. I love it. It is a place where you can serve humanity and regardless of whether the returns are what they should be, a man still has a chance to do something for his fellowman. As I say, I hope to have a few years when my term goes out to practice law.

I am leaving one of the fairest bars in the state when I leave here. There comes a time when you can get an opponent who can disadvantage of this bar take an advantage of that kind. Our old friend Doug Day, that used to be with us, I always thought he was one of the fairest lawyers I ever saw. He got in a suit about his home and through some oversight failed to prepare his papers and he would have lost his home. I couldn't help but remember the fairness he had shown to other lawyers, and I gave him a chance to get his papers in shape. In the trial of cases we should not forget that justice and fair play is the most important thing. Not law, but a right to obtain unless it is just. I have always said a lawyer that gets everything his clients is entitled to will go down as a great attorney and he ought to be satisfied with that. A man shouldn't take something from his client that he would not take as a man. Abe Lincoln had the right idea, he said, "If a man made up his mind that he could not be honest and be a lawyer, let him make up his mind to be honest and not a lawyer." Ours is a great profession and lawyers handle lots of money for their clients and they are not under bond, and it is the last thing you ever heard of having a lawyer

RAINY DAYS
DON'T BOTHER ME!

Some days must be rainy days—the sun can't always be shining. And that goes for money matters too. The important thing is to be ready for any kind of financial weather with a steady growing savings account.

You, too, can take life's "rainy days" in your stride, if you'll use your "sunny days" to build up your savings account. For the security of your family, for your own peace of mind—deposit a fixed amount every pay day. It's the first rule of successful living.

The next time you find yourself alongside a new Cadillac at the traffic light—take a good look at the gentleman behind the wheel.

The odds are overwhelming that you'll see a man relaxed and at ease.

For serenity is part and parcel of the great experience of driving a 1953 Cadillac. In fact, owners frequently take to the highway just for the relaxation the car provides.

And when they might. For here, beyond all question, is one of the surest therapeutics for the tension of work and life!

Just sitting there in the driver's seat is enough to put a man at ease. The cushions are deep and luxurious and restful . . . the wheel is perfectly positioned for the driver's hands . . . and beauty and comfort and spaciousness are in every direction.

And driving a Cadillac is as restful as sitting in a Cadillac.

That great, powerful engine responds as if by magic . . . carrying the car in and out of traffic almost as quickly and as easily as the driver makes his decision to do so. Steering is feather-light and effortless . . . and braking calls only for the slightest pressure from the daintiest foot.

Of course, if the driver has chosen a Cadillac Air Conditioner for his car, he relaxes . . . With a simple adjustment of a single lever, he can lower the car's interior to any normal temperature he desires—even in the warmest weather.

Yes, it's little wonder that the man in the Cadillac always looks so comfortable and happy and relaxed. In plain fact—he is!

Wouldn't it be wonderful to find such satisfaction in your own motoring? Of course, it would—and that's why we suggest that you come in for a personal demonstration.

We'll gladly put you behind the wheel—for the most relaxing hour you ever spent on the highway.

Optional at extra cost.

How Much Insurance Is Enough?

No doubt about it...

Chevrolet trucks must be the best buy!

This year—for the 12th straight production year—truck users are buying more Chevrolet trucks than any other make. That couldn't be true unless Chevrolet trucks offered more of what you want.

Already, 1953's official sales figures tell a remarkable story of clear-cut and decisive preference for Chevrolet trucks. But, this is not surprising, for truck users everywhere are discovering how far ahead of all others Chevrolet trucks really are.

They are discovering things like the tremendous new power in advanced Loadmaster engines in heavy-duty models . . . the remarkable gasoline economy . . . the extra ruggedness and strength of heavier, more rigid frame construction. And, in addition to all these advantages, the Chevrolet line lists for less than any other trucks of comparable size and capacity. So, before you buy any truck, stop in and see us.

Reforestation of idle land in Kentucky is becoming big business. About three million trees were planted this spring. Raising the hardy trees from seed requires careful attention. The state nursery has been developing new Dawson Springs (above) will ultimately produce 5 million seedlings a year.

Machines like the one below can plant about 10,000 trees per day on idle land. These machines are kept in constant operation at Pennsyl Forest State Park during the planting season.

When seedlings are one year old (below), they are ready for transplanting, most being distributed to private landowners and some are retained for planting in state forests.

If there is a discrepancy, he should get it corrected; otherwise he may not receive all the social security credit he should for such earnings, Thompson explained.

An individual's own personal records of earnings are of increasing importance, Thompson said, because of a feature in the law, known as "regularity of employment tests." These tests apply in cases of employment on farms and in domestic households. Work must have been performed on a certain number of days and a certain amount paid in cash wages in a given period for the wage to be covered by law. So, in the event a wage earned does not agree with the amount reported for him, it will be much easier to establish whether he has a right to such credit if he has his own records of time worked and wages paid.

Thompson said that a worker may check on the status of his social security account at any time. He should do so at least once every three years. If he does not agree with the amounts shown, he should take his own records and the statement to the nearest Social Security Administration field office for assistance in getting the account reconciled. A simple post card form for requesting such a statement is available in any social security field office.

Thompson declared. If you would like to take advantage of this service simply address your request to Social Security Administration, Post Office Bldg., Hazard, Ky., and the post card form will be sent you free by return mail.

PROCLAMATION

By virtue of the authority of my office as Mayor of the City of Whitesburg, I hereby proclaim a Clean-Up Period for the City of Whitesburg from the 11th day of May, 1953, through the 16th day of May, 1953. During that period the citizens of the City are urged to unite in giving their aid toward cleaning up the City by removing dead trees and branches, cleaning up unsightly places, and removing debris from the community. The City will provide trucks to remove such rubbish from the premises of each persons desiring the service to call the City Hall on the 13th and 14th days of May. I therefore urge every citizen to unite in this worthy cause. Our town will be clean if we cooperate in this venture. The Fire Department will wash streets and paint lines. Let's join together and make Whitesburg a better place in which to live.

Card of Thanks

I wish to express my thanks and appreciation to the many friends and relatives who stood by my mother in the sickness and death of my dear step father Charlie Kiser, who died the 26th day of March, 1953. I wish to thank everyone who said a comforting word, and to those who brought flowers. Also the doctors and nurses of the Fleming Hospital who did all they could for my mother and to the Rev. Fred Hollen who was in charge of the funeral and burial, who mother said was so kind and good. I wish I could have been there with him and to help my mother, but I was drafted into the Army two weeks before his death and did not get to come home to see him.

Again I want to thank those who stood by my mother and sisters and brothers and my step brothers and sisters, during their great sorrow. We will miss our good father, but we know our loss is heaven's gain.

I wish all my friends would write me.

The best to you all,
Elijah A. Proffitt, US

Blades of Bluegrass

—by J. Allan Smith—

This being a day off from the office, my wife set me to dusting books. In my experience, books always need dusting, but these were in special need. The floors had just been sanded — and took up sheets as you will, the dust finds its way to the books. And so, armed with a soft-bearded attachment for the vacuum cleaner and a fluffy mitt treatment, with a concoction of some sort with a special affinity for dust, and a comfortable stool and an old newspaper to protect the bindings from the newly finished floor, or vice versa, I resigned myself to a tragedy.

But on with the dusting! We can't stop to look at every book.

The Pine Mountain Missionary

—by John R. Isaac—

Perhaps, the most interesting news of this article this week is—we have decided to have two weeks of camp on the top of Pine Mountain. The first camp will be for boys on June 15-19 and the girls camp will follow on June 22-26. The cost of the camps will only be $25 for each camp. The 16 churches should be getting ready to send their campers, for the time will soon be here.

We hope each church will get a good shower (dry) for the campers and that it will be ready to be picked up by June 11-12, by a truck or cars. If the camper can bring his own eat, then that would help the one who could not. We will give more definite information in this article as the time draws near. Application blanks will soon reach the campers.

The definite plans of the soft ball league have not been worked out yet, but they will be worked out soon. The ages of the teams will be the same as of the basketball ages. The teams which are ready to come.

New Church To Hold Services
The Kona Free Will Baptist Church is now ready for services. The first service will be held on Thursday evening, May 14, at 7:00 o'clock (EST). Rev. Lloyd Pike, pastor of the church will be in charge of the services. Everyone is welcome.
